

YOUR HEART IS MAGNIFICENT

Daniel Kovner and Bob Bergner 2018

you feel the different galaxies the joyfulness it brings along with the tragedies could be mixed up at times, it's fine he fixed that at Calvary, even in his sorrow,
he offers us his majesty offers us his majesty, indeed talks of your hardships were the cause of the harsh whip a sinner was saved every time it hit his back see the color his skin turned and how much his limbs burned in the moment of that horrid attack

in the moment of that horrid attack

let our foundation be the rock that you've ordained we can all ride the wave that shifts the nations for good help us walk the path you paved faithful through the fire and pain it's vital for our strength we'll thank the almighty for wood thank the almighty for wood everyone breathes everyone bleeds

everyone needs
look inside please if the sun darkens to whom will you hearken for change
